Dear Members and Friends of Kirkland Congregational Church:

Presented here are the mission statements of our committee heads. They represent the beliefs and commitments of the dedicated individuals who lead groups of committed fellow church members in this challenging time in our church's history. I urge you to read these statements in the light of how they might enlighten and enrich your own life. Any organization is only as strong as the sum of its members, and I encourage you to find a way to participate in the running of your — of our — church. Follow your bliss, pursue your passions; join a committee or attend an event. A wonderful world of community awaits you.

Yours in faith and peace,

Eloise
